The book is divided into six sections, each covering a different area of Rome. The first section, "The Historic Center," includes walks through the ancient Roman Forum, the Colosseum, and the Pantheon. The second section, "The Vatican and Trastevere," covers the Vatican Museums, St. Peter's Basilica, and the Trastevere neighborhood. The third section, "The Trevi District and Quirinale Hill," includes walks through the Trevi Fountain, the Spanish Steps, and Quirinale Palace. The fourth section, "Monti and Esquiline Hill," covers the Monti neighborhood, the Basilica of Santa Maria Maggiore, and the Esquiline Hill. The fifth section, "Celio and Aventine Hills," covers the Celio neighborhood, the Baths of Caracalla, and the Aventine Hill. The sixth and final section, "Testaccio and Ostiense District," covers the Testaccio neighborhood, the Pyramid of Cestius, and the Ostiense District.

Each walk in the book is described in detail, with clear directions and helpful tips. Callan also provides a wealth of information on the history, art, and architecture of each site, making the book a valuable resource for both tourists and residents alike.

Rome on Foot is a must-have for anyone who wants to explore Rome on foot. The book's comprehensive coverage, clear directions, and wealth of information make it the perfect companion for any walking tour of the Eternal City.
